TRAVEL+ SOCIALGOOD

OUR INDUSTRY. OUR WORLD. OUR LEAD.

TRAVEL+SOCIALGOOD

Travel+SocialGood was born in the spring of 2013 as a partner of the +socialgood initiative, headed by the United Nations, UNDP, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, The Case Foundation & Mashable. 250 social entrepreneurs, engaged media agencies, academic thought leaders, and others with interests in the travel space joined Travel+SocialGood for our inaugural conference. Through speeches, pitches, ignite sessions, and directed conversations, we aimed to spark this collaborative ecosystem of innovation and foster its development far beyond the conference itself.

MISSION

To propel the travel industry to meet its potential for global positive impact.

HOW?

1

Through T+SG hubs, communities of impact innovators in the travel and tech space implementing the global mission locally.

2

Through the T+SG Academy, a series of classes and lectures aimed at creating an authoritative academic resource for learning about impact in the travel industry.

3

Through the T+SG Accelerator, which will be the first intensive accelerator program for social ventures in the travel space.

"The best thing about this about this conference is that the ideas coming out of it aren't owned by billionaires, politicians or royalty…we are talking about our target audience, our future generations of ticket-buyers here, these are the people who are going to be shaping our economy and moral standards and those are the ideas I want to hear."
